(Los Angeles, CA—October 13, 2026) The Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) announced today that ROSÉ is the musical guest of the 2026 Art+Film Gala honoring artist Vija Celmins and filmmaker Denis Villeneuve. Co-chaired by LACMA trustee Eva Chow and actor Leonardo DiCaprio, this celebration of art and film will take place on Saturday, November 7, 2026. Gucci continues its invaluable partnership with the museum as the presenting sponsor. Transportation and additional support for the gala will be provided by Audi.

“The LACMA Art+Film Gala celebrates creative icons and the connections between all forms of creativity, all around the world,” said Eva Chow. “As a global pop superstar, ROSÉ will amplify the spirit of the evening with her incomparable talent and style.”

About ROSÉ

Global icon ROSÉ has shattered records, performed on the most heralded stages, and amassed millions of fans around the world both as a soloist and member of one of the best-selling girl groups of all time, BLACKPINK. The Korean New Zealander superstar has earned over 10 billion solo streams to date with her first studio album rosie and three-time Grammy-nominated smash single “APT.” with Bruno Mars, which was crowned the number-one best-selling global single of 2025. Simultaneously, ROSÉ has been an unstoppable force in fashion as global ambassador for renowned brands, in addition to her most recent collaboration with Apple as part of its “Shot on iPhone” campaign featuring her single “new trick.” Her influence in music, fashion, and philanthropy has proven her to be a testament to the growth of Korean influence in music and fashion on a global scale.

LACMA Art + Film Gala

At the 2025 Art+Film Gala, nearly 600 prominent guests celebrated the achievements of artist Mary Corse and filmmaker Ryan Coogler. The evening included a compelling musical performance by Doja Cat. The 2025 Art+Film Gala raised $6.5 million, a new record for the museum.

LACMA Art+Film Gala proceeds are used to support the initiative to make film more central to the museum’s curatorial programming, while also funding LACMA’s broader mission. This includes exhibitions, acquisitions, and educational programming, in addition to screenings that explore the intersection of art and film.
